

L-6 Adjectives

Have you read Rapunzel's story? Let's complete it using the word given in the box. [ golden, selfish,tall, shining, small, beautiful].

Once , there was a girl named Rapunzel.She had long , golden

She was locked in a tall tower by a selfish woman. One day,a small frog named Toady climbed up the tower.He gave a shining crown to Rapunzel.

hair.

Toady helped Rapunzel to come out of the tower. She was very excited to see the beautiful world.

(A) Shashi has a magic umbrella. It allows only drops with Adjectives to fall on the ground.Which drops do you think will fall on the ground?

tall.

dropping

thin.

short wet.

fat.

Page no.50 / 51

(B) Look at the picture. Fill in the blanks using from the box. [ green, dark, wet, big, black, colourful, pink , happy.]

1. It is raining. Ramita and Ritika are going to school.

2. The sky is black.

3. There are many dark clouds in the sky.

4. The two girls are carrying colourful umbrellas.

5. Ramita has a green umbrella and Ritika has pink umbrella .

umbrella and Ritika

6. They like to jump in the big puddles on the road.

7. Ramita and Ritika are totally wet. but they They love the rains !

are happy.

(C) Let us read this poem. Underline the adjectives and circle the nouns they describe.

The Robin.

I am a (robin), very brown

And big and plump and smooth and round.

My (breast) is pretty, bright and red

And see this top-knot on my (head.).

Page no.52 /53

(E) Read these sentences and underline the Adjectives.

Then , complete the sentences using their opposites.

- 1.This bag is heavy.That bag is light.
2. My room is clean. Her room is dirty.
3. The path was narrow. We wanted to take a wide road.
- 4.The questions were easy,but the answers were difficult.
- 5.The stone is hard, but the feather is light.
- 6.The bottle is full, but the glass is empty.

7. This is bright colour. That colour is dark.

Page no.55

(1) Tick [✓] the correct sentences.

sentences. Cross [×] the wrong

(2) Write sentences using very or really.

1. The plane is very big.
2. Num and Dad are very happy.
3. Emily thinks Sarah is really funny!
4. The kite is very high.