

Class - VIII B

Sub. - M.Sc

Lesson -2

Q. 1. What are the qualities of a true friend?

Ans. A true friend makes you smile and encourages you to succeed. He lends an ear, shares your joy and sorrow, and always opens his heart to you.

or

A true friend is one who can even become harsh to bring greater advantage to you. In return, he who does not sulk or feel hurt by the actions of his friend is a true friend.

Q. 2. Where did the prince and his friend go?

Ans. The prince and his friend went out for hunting in the forest.

Q. 3. Who wanted to attack the prince?

Ans. A snake wanted to attack the prince.

Q. 4. How did the minister's son save his friend's life?

Ans. He made a small slit around the side of prince's throat and offered some blood to the snake instead of biting the prince as he wanted to save the prince.

Q. 5. Why did the prince not question his friend?

Ans. Because his trust on his friend was boundless that his friend couldn't any harm to him.

B. Fill in the blanks:-

1. True friendship thrives on trust, inspiration and comfort.

2. True friendship grows better with time.

3. Encourage others to talk about themselves.

4. True friends are not opportunists.

C. All statements are true.