

A: Fill in the blanks with a or an.

1. An apple
2. A pen
3. An umbrella
4. A kite
5. A sharpener
6. An icecream

B: Complete the story using a, an or the.

Once, a tiger was sleeping under an apple tree.

Suddenly a mosquito came buzzing by.

The tiger woke up angrily.

He hit out with his paw, but the mosquito flew off.

He hit his own nose.

An elephant was standing nearby.

He said to the tiger, ' Don't be so proud, my friend.

Everyone is great in their own way!' The tiger got up and quietly walked away.

Page no- 58

C: Match the pictures to a, an the.

A parrot

An aeroplane

A book

A lemon

The India gate

The Red Fort

Page no- 59

D: Ria has returned from a trip to Mumbai.

She is talking to her friend Tia about it.

Complete the sentences using a, an and the :

I went to see the Gateway of India with my family.

It is in Mumbai. We went to Mumbai by an aeroplane.

We went to a beach. The beach was very clean. We had a lot of fun there.

I got a doll, a hat and a bag from Mumbai.

Page no-60

E: Correct the use of a, an, the in this story.

Once there was a mouse.

The moon looked like a piece of cheese to him.

'I wish I could reach the Moon,' said the mouse.

'I can help,' said an owl.

The mouse flew with the owl into clouds.

But the moon was still too high!

'Sorry, I couldn't help,' said the owl.

'I don't want to go anywhere when I have a friend like you,' the mouse said.

Page no- 61

An ant

A bed

A cat

A dog

An egg

A frog

A girl

A hat

An igloo

A car

An umbrella

An apple

A man

An octopus

A pen

A queen

A zebra